ROCKEFELLER'S DAUGHTER DIES

Mrs. Strong Expires at Cannes, France, from Paralytic Stroke—Had Been Long Ill.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Private advice received in New York tonight told of the death of Mrs. Beattie Rockefeller Strong, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller.

Mrs. Strong died early today in Cannes, France, where with her husband, Prof. Charles A. Strong of Columbia University, and her two children, she had been for some time.

Mrs. Strong had been ill for some time, and suffered a paralytic stroke on November 12, after which she sank slowly until the end. The body will be sent to America the end of this week.

Mrs. Strong's husband was a professor of philosophy at Bryn Mawr, and later a professor of Columbia University.

It was said last spring that the illness of Mrs. Strong was the principal reason why John D. Rockefeller consented to go to Europe.

PROOFS THAT GATES WOBBLED.

His Own Letter of Resignation That He Submitted to Arbitrators and Then Withdrew.

FOLLOWING is a copy of the letter of withdrawal (a most eloquent, sane and admirable letter) which Lee C. Gates submitted to the Board of Arbitrators that he himself selected, who were to decide whether he or Dr. Lindley should step aside—a letter that Mr. Gates wrote himself and signed, and then recalled at the dictation of self-constituted dictators of the Non-Partisan organization:

To the Central Committee of the Non-Partisan party.

Gentlemen:—I hereby beg to tender to you my resignation as your candidate for Mayor. I am impelled to this extraordinary step by reasons and circumstances so overwhelmingly imperative that I cannot disregard or disobey them.

The division of the Republican and patriotic vote of this city between two candidates invites a disaster so appalling that no patriotic citizen should allow any personal motives to intervene to prevent it. In the presence of a portent and threat and the imminence of the danger which is now apparent by reason of the dual candidacy of Dr. Lindley and myself, personal and party considerations must give way to the city's welfare and safety. I am therefore reluctantly compelled to withstand the criticism of your committee and my friends, but must brave the same in the presence of this danger by the discharge of this higher duty which calls upon you and me for the sacrifice involved.

The example of our stricken and outraged sister city, San Francisco, affords so horrifying a spectacle of what may be prevented here as to make further argument or reason unnecessary to justify this course.

With a regret that begs words to express, and hoping that my motives may not be misunderstood or misapprehended, and that you may see the justification for my course in the compelling necessity which actuates this sacrifice, I beg to remain,

Most respectfully yours,

LEE C. GATES.

[The agreement was that the committee of arbitrators should decide whether Mr. Gates should withdraw, that is whether the above letter should be given out, or Dr. Lindley should withdraw. Mr. Gates forswore his agreement and withdrew the letter of which the above is a copy.]

As further showing Mr. Gates' ability as a wobbler, it may be stated that within two days of the date of the above letter of resignation, Mr. Gates sent The Times a most emphatic signed statement vowing that he would stay in the race till the finish.

FROM NON-PARTISANS.

Following are copies of letters written by James A. Foshay, chairman of the Non-Partisan committee, and W. G. Hutchinson, a member, requesting Mr. Gates to withdraw in behalf of the public safety:

LOS ANGELES, Cal., November 9, 1906.

HON. LEE C. GATES,

City.

My Dear Sir:

Personally, I can but believe that the present situation concerning the outlook of the division of the Republican vote for Mayor at the coming city election is of such seriousness as to have yourself and Dr. Lindley submit your cases to a board of arbitration.

I have almost constantly considered this matter since I last saw you, and can come to no other conclusion, when I consider the interests of our fair city.

Yours truly,

JAS. A. FOSHAY.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 9, 1906.

HON. LEE C. GATES,

Los Angeles, Cal.

My Dear Mr. Gates:

You undoubtedly will remember my being a member of a recent committee who called upon you, at which I expressed myself very forcibly on the matter of your handing your resignation to the committee referred to.

I beg to say, at this time, that I have given the matter very serious thought, and feel more than ever that this should be done for the welfare of the city at large.

Trusting that you will give this matter careful consideration, and remember that this is simply a personal letter, I remain, with best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

W. G. HUTCHINSON.

DR. LINDLEY'S LETTER.

Following is a copy of the letter of withdrawal of Dr. Lindley, which he submitted to the arbitrators to be used if their judgment should so dictate, and which he stood by to the very last:

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5, 1906.

MR. D. C. MCGARVIN,

Chairman Republican City Central Committee:

Dear Sir: Recognizing that the welfare of our city should be put before and above individual ambition I hereby positively and irrevocably resign and withdraw my name from the Republican ticket for Mayor. Regretting the necessity for this step, I am,

Yours truly,

WALTER LINDLEY.

[Dr. Lindley's letter of course became non-effective after Mr. Gates had receded from his agreement to arbitrate.]

CONFESSION OF COMMITTEE.

If other proof were wanting of the fact that Gates (inspired by a few members of the Non-Partisan Committee) violated his pledge to arbitrate, we have the confession of the committee itself. In an amazing document printed in last evening's Express, the Non-Partisan Committee's Executive Committee makes the declaration that it is true that they considered an arbitration, but with the understanding that the dice were loaded in their favor. The Times quotes from this document:

"The proposal to arbitrate the question of the withdrawal of one or the other of these candidates was offered to the Executive Committee of the Non-Partisan organization ostensibly as a proposition to 'let Dr. Lindley down easy.' We were assured that he wanted to withdraw from the race and that the decision of the arbitration committee would almost certainly be in favor of our candidate. Something might be said as to the propriety of entering into an arbitration the result of which we believed to have been inevitably in our favor. Apart from that, however, we became convinced that the proffered arbitration was in reality only a political trick inspired by the recognized 'boss of the city machine,' and that the real intent was to deprive the Non-Partisan ticket of its head."

The falsity of this characteristic statement of Lissner that the proposition to arbitrate was offered to the committee "ostensibly as a proposition to let Dr. Lindley down easy" is sufficiently demonstrated by a glance at the board of arbitrators. These were:

Rev. Robert J. Burdette, D.D.
O. T. Johnson.
Gen. M. H. Sherman.
Henry W. O'Melveny.
Thomas Hughes.

Who besides Lissner would have the effrontery to maintain that such a board would lend itself to a dishonest programme; that these gentlemen when agreeing, as they did, to act as arbitrators, would stoop to trickery or

Los Angeles voters have a right to know the origin and evolution of the arbitration board to whom Mr. Gates and Dr. Lindley agreed to submit the question as to who of the two should withdraw from the race for Mayor.

It has been explained that while Dr. Lindley was true to his word and stuck to it till the Non-Partisan Executive Committee destroyed all hope of arbitration, Mr. Gates was weak enough to permit himself to be clubbed by Lissner and others into backing out.

The most impressive fact of all connected with this whole matter is that Mr. Gates chose arbitrators himself. Dr. Lindley afterward accepting them. These were the five arbitrators finally decided upon by Mr. Gates:

Rev. Robert J. Burdette, D.D.
O. T. Johnson.
Gen. M. H. Sherman.
Henry W. O'Melveny.
Thomas Hughes.

In first making up his board, Mr. Gates named either J. M. Elliott or A. B. Cass in place of O. T. Johnson. Dr. Lindley elected Mr. Cass, but Mr. Gates, after reflection, declared that Mr. Cass would not do, and then substituted the name of O. T. Johnson. When Mr. Johnson's name was submitted to Dr. Lindley, he said: "Mr. Johnson is on Mr. Gates' election committee and I don't think it is just the thing to place him on the arbitration board; but I have complete faith in his fairness and if he will consent to serve I will accept him."

Thus the board was finally made up. Gates naming every member of it. Dr. Lindley assented to each proposition that came from his camp and expressed at every stage of the proceedings a desire to submit to the judgment of the best jury that could be selected, without regard to his personal ambition, and a wish to take such action as might conduce to the highest welfare of the people.

He stood up like a man. He deserves to be elected Mayor. The Times has fully and accurately stated the bare facts. It regrets that they are disagreeable to the friends of Mr. Gates, but the public is entitled to know these things. They are a matter of record. The Times publishes the documents.

As to the truth of the allegations, nobody has dared or will dare deny them.

Threatened Contest Over the Orluchs Will May Be Averted by a Compromise.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Unless the legal steps to be taken tomorrow should result in the disclosure that the late Herman Orluchs made a will of more recent date than that of the instrument which it is now sought to probate, it is practically settled that the threatened contest in behalf of the interests of the widow and the son of the testator will be averted by a compromise agreement. For the purpose of ascertaining whether Mr. Orluchs executed a will subsequent to the one made by him last June a motion will be made tomorrow in the surrogate's court for authority to open a box, the existence of which has been known hitherto only to those directly concerned.

Gleason, Gleason suddenly and mysteriously dropped out of sight, and has not since been seen or heard from by any one here.

Miss Myers and Gleason have long been social leaders of Avoca. All the wealthy and fashionable people of the city were invited to the wedding and had assembled at the home in response to the invitations.

PREDICTS FINANCIAL TROUBLE.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John Pease Norton, Yale professor of political economy, in a startling article on the effects of the depreciation of gold, predicts a serious financial trouble. Louisiana, which arrived ahead of schedule time, was conveyed by the Panamanian and the Washington. The three vessels, anchored about a mile from the dock during a heavy rain-fall.

Owing to the fact that the Louisiana arrived ahead of time neither President Amador of Panama, nor Chairman Shonts of the Isthmian Canal Commission was on hand to welcome President Roosevelt.

President Amador left Panama at 4:30 o'clock in a special train for Colon, and at 8:30 o'clock tonight boarded the Louisiana and extended a cordial greeting to America's Chief Executive.

In President Amador's party, beside Chairman Shonts, were Chief Engineer Stevens and Executive Secretary Reed of the commission, and the American Minister at Panama, Squires.

During the afternoon the President received the local newspaper correspondents on board the Louisiana. He said that his voyage had been pleasant and uneventful and expressed himself as gratified at the welcome which the citizens of the isthmus were preparing for him when he lands tomorrow. He stated that he proposed to look into the Jamaican labor question and also intended to see everything possible concerning the canal.

The President will begin his tour of inspection tomorrow and an extensive programme of official entertainments has been prepared.

PROGRAMME OF RECEPTION.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

PANAMA, Nov. 14.—The President is not expected here until tomorrow morning when he will receive an enthusiastic welcome. President Amador, his wife and the members of the Cabinet, accompanied by a number of prominent citizens of this republic, are going to Colon this evening to meet President Roosevelt. The latter and his party will leave Colon on a slow train tomorrow, in order to give them an opportunity to see the canal works.

The Presidential train after passing through the zone will go to La Boca where the President will inspect the Pacific entrance of the canal.

CUBA IS STIRRED BY VISIT OF BUCHANAN.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

HAVANA (Cuba) Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The recent demands made for office, made by liberals and granted by Gov. Magoon; the forging in the front of the color issue, and the fear by conservatives that the approaching elections and the departure of Americans will mean the handing over of the island to what is known as "the Negro party," have stirred up the Cubans.

Spaniards, uninterested in politics, but representing the wealth and intelligence of the population, have been meeting like conspirators for a week behind closed doors, trying to devise some plan to save Cuba from further revolution and the entire loss of independence, and now come straight from Washington William I. Buchanan, former Minister to Argentina, with questions as to what they really do want.

Buchanan's coming has caused a sensation. It is asserted that he is commissioned by Secretary Root to investigate the whole Cuban situation with a view to convincing the President as to what is the best plan for the United States to adopt regarding the future of Cuba.

Americans who met Mr. Buchanan, and afterward saw Minister Morgan, who first called on Mr. Buchanan, confirmed the report that the latter's mission here is to report on the best time at which to hold elections, and whether municipal elections should not be tried under continued American occupation before a general election is allowed.

On the one point, regarded vital by all except Liberal leaders—that of the continuance of American supervision after elections—Mr. Buchanan is getting some emphatic views. They are all to one purpose. It is that if the Americans are to go away immediately it does not make any difference when the elections are held. They will have to come right back to put down another revolution.

Mr. Buchanan is saying that the President wants to avoid this. Cuba, he says, must not bob up again if anything possible can be done to give it enduring peace. He has pointed out that annexation is not to be thought of; and, so long as the Teller resolution stands, there can be no American protectorate.

FALLING INTO LINDLEY LINE.

Big Interests Swing to Him as Their Choice.

See Safety for City Under His Wise Guidance.

No Time Now to Daily With Fads and Fancies.

There was a marshaling of Republican efforts yesterday that promises success for the candidacy of Dr. Walter Lindley for Mayor.

By publication in the Times of the names of the heads of the Republican and Non-Partisan tickets to effect a compromise, the issues of the campaign were clearly defined. Hesitation and doubt were cast aside and the leaders rallied on the real work of the campaign.

By nightfall it was evident that powerful local interests—interests that have made and unmade Mayors, Congressmen and Senators—were swinging into line for Lindley.

From every ward came the little politicians, the ones whose sole object is to be back a winner. They hurried to Republican headquarters and squabbled for the privilege of carrying a torch in the Lindley procession. These torches were not of wax, but of the words of real Lindley sentiment.

ALLEGIANCE IS PLEDGED.

Quietly, without any unnecessary heating of tom-toms, the men came whose shoulders are colored by the persistent application to the wheels of progress. They brought assurance of their allegiance and support, announcing that they have decided this is the most opportune time to place in the Mayor's chair a weak, wobbly or a vicious chief executive.

Last night Dr. Lindley's name appeared on the bulletin boards of local poolrooms for the first time, and it was at even money on Lindley against the field.

Arthur C. Harper's strength with the men on the street faded like a morning mist. Men who had lent to his candidacy their passive support while waiting for the development of the campaign came out squarely for Lindley, saying that the present is no time to take chances.

OVERSHADOWING ISSUE.

Plainly the issue in the campaign that overshadows all others is the demand that for the next three years the city shall have an efficient, conservative business administration. The men who are working to make Los Angeles the metropolis of the west coast have no time to waste in a city administration.

The people realize that the city's credit must be pledged to the limit permitted by the State law to bring the Owens River to our gates. They feel that this is no time to lose for the lure of tomorrow the light of today.

An administration pledged to build a railroad to the sea, and erect and maintain gas and electric plants, regardless of expense, is plainly an administration that promises too much.

FINANCIAL EXPERTS.

Pinhead McCarthy's calamity campaign is not bearing the fruits he expected. McCarthy has found a different class of workmen here from those on the water front at San Francisco. His efforts to ally class against class have been only partially successful. But he has succeeded in welding together hitherto divided local interests. There have been no indications to present an unbroken front to the common enemies, graft, greed and the walking dead.

Harper's campaign is only a repetition of that made by the Democrats two years ago. Harper is an apt pupil of former Mayor Snyder. Those who know him know that he has the astuteness, the ability at side-stepping that characterized Snyder's political career, but that he lacks his chief's powers of organization.

SNYDER COLLAR?

Snyder's wrath has already slipped down over Harper's ears, and it looks very much like a collar. For the first time men on the street and in the clubs asked each other seriously the reason for Gates's candidacy. There have been years in Los Angeles when Republican voters would have welcomed the opportunity to vote for a man of Mr. Gates's qualifications, but this year is not one of them.

A remarkable thing about Gates's candidacy is that while he is the nominee of the so-called Non-Partisans, members of the Royal Arch swear by him almost to a man.

MUST WAIT A WEEK.

There is little likelihood that the official result of the general election of last week in Los Angeles county will be known within less than a week. The returns from all but about forty precincts of the 224 in the county have been checked and numerous errors have been corrected, but the task of entering the results in the big books provided for that purpose is necessarily slow and the clerks have probably another week's labor ahead of them.

It will be no small task to add the long columns of figures when they shall have been entered in the books. Until this is done the exact vote of the county on any office cannot be known. In the few instances where the vote on two candidates is about equal there may be changes in the result as already announced, but there will be no great change in the general result.

NON-PARTISANS SPEAK.

Two hundred persons attended a meeting last night at Akey's Hall, Vermont and Central avenues, at which Lee C. Gates and other candidates of the Non-Partisan City Central Committee made addresses. County Assessor Ben Ward spoke in endorsement of Walter Mallard, candidate for City Assessor, and R. M. Lusk presented his own claims for the office of Tax and License Collector. Capt. C. H. Hance, candidate for Treasurer, and J. V. Mull, candidate for Chairman of the Sixth Ward, also spoke.

REPUBLICANS FILL GAPS.

Melville Dozier, Fielding J. Stilson and Dr. Joseph O. Downing were named yesterday by the Executive Committee of the Republican City Central Committee to fill vacancies on the ticket.

FOR SCHOOL BOARD.

The vote on the school board was taken yesterday by the Executive Committee of the Republican City Central Committee to fill vacancies on the ticket.

Republican ticket for members of the Board of Education, caused by the withdrawal of J. M. Guinn, W. D. Stephens and W. J. Washburn, nominated by the city non-partisan caucus. Dozier and Stilson already were the nominees of the Non-Partisans and had been endorsed by the Democratic convention.

With two exceptions, the Republican ticket for members of the School Board now is the same as that of the Non-Partisans and Democrats. The exceptions are Dr. Joseph O. Downing and Melville Dozier.

FOR LESLIE R. HEWITT.

LIVELY CAMPAIGN ARRANGED. There was a private meeting of the friends of Leslie R. Hewitt, candidate for City Attorney, at the office of the Smith Dietrich Company, last evening. An aggressive campaign was mapped out, special attention being given to the program for work on election day. Mr. Hewitt's friends are very much encouraged by the prospects, and feel certain that his election will make an excellent showing at the polls.

Non-Partisans Tonight.

Two public meetings will be held tonight under the direction of the Non-Partisan City Central Committee. Lee C. Gates will speak at both gatherings. One meeting will be at A.O.U.W. hall, 1111 Broadway, and the other at Y.M.C. Hall on Downey avenue, in the First Ward.

Democrats Get Busy.

Democrats will open their city campaign next Saturday evening with an open-air rally at Downey avenue and Daily street.

MACHINES FAIL TO WORK WELL.

VOTE NOT REGISTERED CORRECTLY AT 'FRISCO.

In Eight Precincts Which the Election Commissioners Have Counted, Mechanical Mistakes and Errors by Election Boards Were Discovered—Judge Cook's Vote Increased.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—That the voting machines did not correctly record the votes cast at the recent general election was shown in the official canvass of the returns which was begun by the election commissioners today. Eight of the 125 precincts were canvassed, and in nearly all of them mechanical mistakes by the ballot boxes and errors by the election boards were discovered.

Commissioner Cator, in one of the many discussions that were had, stated that an informal examination of the mechanical returns indicated that the machines had failed to register correctly in about half of the precincts.

Among the developments of the day was a gain for Judge Cook, nominee for presiding Justice of the Court of Appeals. In the first precinct of the city the vote for Cook was 125, but in the canvass he had an apparent gain of 58 votes.

Mr. Cook's gain was 58 votes, but the 58 in the Union Labor column had been scratched from the sheet by the precinct election board.

BERRI WAS NOT ELECTED.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—The canvass of the election returns brought to light the fact that Eugene Berri who was supposed to have been elected to the Assembly from the Third District by a vote of 125, had been defeated by John McKeon, the Democratic and Independence League candidate, by a vote of 125.

Harper's campaign is only a repetition of that made by the Democrats two years ago. Harper is an apt pupil of former Mayor Snyder. Those who know him know that he has the astuteness, the ability at side-stepping that characterized Snyder's political career, but that he lacks his chief's powers of organization.

chance? These gentlemen accepted the trust in all sincerity and if permitted would have performed their duties impartially. The intimation of Lissner that they went into a loaded dice game for the purpose of jobbing one of the candidates is indignantly resented by every one of them.

POSITION OF THE TIMES.

The charge printed in the Evening News and attributed to Lee C. Gates to the effect that The Times promised its support to Gates is fully nullified by the record of The Times on the question. The Times has iterated and reiterated the assertion that one of these gentlemen ought to withdraw, leaving The Times, and others agreeing with it, free to support the other candidate. "Nobody who has read The Times during the last three months has any doubt as to its position. In its columns and by word of its management The Times has said to Mr. Gates: 'There must be a getting together. The Times will support you when Mr. Lindley is out of the way.' The Times has said to Dr. Lindley: 'One of you gentlemen should withdraw. The Times will support you when Mr. Gates is out of the way.'"

When Mr. Gates went back on his word and withdrew his consent to an arbitration, going against his own better judgment in compliance with the partisan insistence of Boss Lissner and a few others, then The Times declared that inasmuch as Dr. Lindley had stood by his promise to the last and proven himself a strong, independent and reliable man, The Times would support him for Mayor. The situation calls for a man who will not wobble.

COMMENTS MADE BY LOCAL LEADERS.

O. F. BRANT, manager of the "Little Insurance & Trust Company," by which Mr. Gates is employed as an attorney, said last evening:

"What we want to be sure of is a good Mayor. In my opinion we are risking too much with a divided force, and I fear a repetition of San Francisco's mistake. After an intimate acquaintance of thirty years with his candidates for Mayor, Lee C. Gates, I know of no question touching my honor or interest that would not be willing to let that committee decide, feeling that even though they decided against me they would decide fairly."

Mr. Brant has been for many years the confidential friend and employer, the above expression is overwhelmingly significant.

The original 100 gentlemen who organized the Non-Partisan party are in many instances very much disturbed in mind over the revelation made of the unstable will possessed by their candidates for Mayor, Lee C. Gates. Several of them said openly on the streets yesterday in talking to the published statements of the party's vacillation were confirmed they would not hesitate to sign a declaration that they would support Mayor for Mayor and not for a man who would wobble.

Stoddard Jess, one of the vice-presidents of the First National Bank, not only a close friend of the party, but as any man in Los Angeles. He knows Dr. Lindley quite as well, and his personal opinion, that he is a man of great executive ability, has plenty of backbone, and if elected he will, in his opinion, do his duty as Mayor without fear or favor. He knows how to handle men, cannot be bullied or driven, and his honesty has never been questioned. This city is Republican, and it would be a shame to turn over the city administration to the hands of a man who would wobble.

He knows how to handle men, cannot be bullied or driven, and his honesty has never been questioned. BUSY HUM IN LINDLEY CAMP.

Rush of Voters to Aid of the Popular Candidate.

Men in All Stations Take Up Winning Campaign.

Public Opening of Battle at Meetings Tonight.

Lindley stock made a sensational rise on the political market yesterday. It shot up many points on the reports revealing the conditions surrounding the candidates for Mayor, in which the reputation of Dr. Lindley as an independent was clearly revealed.

A veritable raid was made upon him in his den and he was acclaimed the winner because of the consistent course he is shown to have pursued from the time he first was announced as an unexpected aspirant for the honorable office he seeks.

While Dr. Lindley's rooms in the Germania building had been crowded on Monday and Tuesday, the first two days of their opening, they were jammed absolutely for about four hours yesterday afternoon. Many who had come to extend good wishes and to proffer their services.

During the noon hour the candidate was engaged in making a hurried tour of the city, meeting financiers and merchants and promoting his campaign.

In his absence his quarters filled with people who were waiting behind him for a chance to see him. He was fairly swamped by the crowd that had gathered to greet him.

PEOPLE WITH HIM.

It was a remarkable testimonial of the popularity of the candidate, so different from the usual campaign openings because of the wide range of citizenship that was represented. It was no mere gathering of ward workers with stories of their remarkable power to find and handle voters.

It was an outpouring of the hosts of the city's prominent and wealthy men of affairs as well as of the more obscure and yet equally earnest wage-earners.

Among the callers were bankers, contractors, architects, merchants and professional men. The men who have made Los Angeles what it is were there. Needless to say, they belong to the class of citizens who are the city's proud position and to lay the foundation for even greater conquests.

For the purpose of organizing a uniform Republican club, every delegate to the recent Republican City Convention has been invited to the Lindley campaign. Lindley buttons for distribution, and he got them.

Similar steps are being taken in other wards to organize clubs, and one of the projects under consideration by the organization of a "Business Men's Lindley Marching Club."

These are a few of the events of the first days of the campaign that indicate the sweeping nature it is to assume before election day rolls around.

POLITICAL BRIEFS.

New England Bryan League.

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Twenty-five from the New England Democrats have met here.

The best of the city's life is in the Lindley fight. Presidents and other officers of banks are private in the Lindley ranks, waging a winning battle alongside the president of a big insurance company, the heads of large real estate concerns, prominent architects and contractors whose future is bound up in the continuance of prosperity and order.

Some of them commented on the difference between this campaign and the municipal contest two years ago. They remarked the wonderful change that has taken place in the city since that time.

Two years ago, for instance, it is said the Republican candidate for Mayor at this stage of the campaign apparently lacked 500 votes of the number needed to assure his election. Despite this handicap he was elected.

On the other hand, Dr. Lindley's managers are assured that he now has a lead of at least 500 votes over his nearest competitor, or a difference of 1000 votes as compared with the campaign of 1915.

While flushed with optimism, the Lindley campaign managers do not intend to make the mistake of pridefully by in overconfidence. They will work as if they were far behind in the race, and had a tremendous handicap to overcome. This is a political lesson they have learned through long experience. They have seen contests lost through indulgence in an excess of confidence. They have acquired the habit of keeping everlastingly at it until the votes are counted.

SHARP, SNAPPY FIGHT.

A sharp, telling campaign of less than three weeks will be made. Dr. Lindley already has begun his part of it by devoting every minute of his time to personal canvass. He is proving himself a "live wire" as a campaigner.

Today the Mayorality candidate will speak at noon meetings of workingmen in some of the big industrial plants of the city. This evening he will be entertained at dinner by the alumni of the College of Medicine of the University of Southern California—a take this means of expressing their regret at his departure from the college he was largely instrumental in building up. The dinner will be at Levy's Café, where two weeks ago, the alumni of the College of Law of the university, tendered to him a banquet and organized a Lindley Club for service during the campaign.

MEETINGS TONIGHT.

After the dinner Dr. Lindley will speak at two public meetings, one in the Sixth Ward, at Sixteenth street and Santa Fe avenue, the other at No. 521 West Pico street, in the Fourth Ward.

These meetings really will mark the public opening of the Republican city campaign. In addition to Dr. Lindley, it is expected that candidates for all other offices will attend.

Plans are under way for meetings nearly every night in some of the residents of the wards who are not actively engaged in politics.

There will be a meeting at Lindley headquarters at 4 o'clock this afternoon of the Executive Committee of the Republican City Central Committee, for the purpose of advancing the work of the campaign.

THOROUGH ORGANIZATION.

The committee has adopted a plan for the thorough organization of the city by wards and precincts. Members of the committee will be assigned to each ward and precinct to call on the voters and to discuss the campaign with them.

Ward have called the precinct committee of that ward to meet at Levy's Café at noon today to discuss the campaign. A strict watch is being kept on the campaign. A strict watch is being kept on the campaign.

A. J. Morganstern, A. P. Fleming, H. L. Cornish and John F. Mott, four leading members of the Executive Committee, have called a meeting at 8 o'clock this evening, for the purpose of organizing a Fourth Ward Republican club. Every delegate to the recent Republican City Convention has been invited to the Lindley campaign.

POLITE STYLE OF BURGLARY.

Thief Driven to House and Protests to Have Called on Ladies.

Novel methods brought a burglar slim results yesterday afternoon at the home of W. D. Ashley, No. 847 Francisco street.

In a light wagon, the driver of which waited for him in front of the victim's door, the crook escaped after holding up Ashley with a long knife.

Ashley was asleep in the house, about 4:30 o'clock. He was aroused by some one moving about. The thief had thought that no one was in the building, but when Ashley faced him he had just discovered the presence of two women.

"I'm here to call on the ladies," he said.

Ashley went to summon the two women from an adjoining room. As soon as he moved, he saw the crook draw a knife.

This weapon the man held at the householder's breast.

"Move and I'll kill you," he said. Ashley did not move.

The burglar went to the front door and opened it with a skeleton key. The man in the wagon in front of the house called out: "Look out, Dick. Some one's coming down the road."

The burglar leaped into the wagon and the pair drove off at high speed. The matter was soon afterward reported to the police and detectives were sent to investigate.

work-outs before the Pomona contest, November 24.

The line-up of the varsity for the remaining games practically has been decided. Brooke, through his good playing last Saturday in the Polytechnic games, has earned his place at left end, and Thomson will be used at right and to replace Patterson, who was moved to center, Conrad going to right tackle. The other positions will be filled by the men who have been playing them.

The second team is arranging a schedule to be played after the intercollegiate games are over. The first game probably will be played December 1 with a strong High School team.

Contestants in New York Motor Club's Economy Run Reach Albany in Stipulated Time.

ALBANY (N. Y.) Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The contestants in the New York Motor Club's economy tour of 400 miles reached Albany this afternoon, making their first day's stop having run 100 miles in the stipulated time.

Account of the late start from New York and the consequent arrival here, the Contest Committee was not able to estimate tonight just what it had cost each car to run to this point.

Ball Club Meeting.

It is now given out that on Friday there will be a meeting of the directors of the Los Angeles Ball Club to decide upon a site for next year. This is given out as being positive, but as several of such positive meetings have been advertised during the past month and nothing has yet resulted, it is fair to assume there will be nothing done tomorrow. It is understood that Pendleton and Henry Berry are out of town and nothing can be done until they return.

Los Angeles Man Wins.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Nov. 14.—Helen Darr, owned by George T. Becker of Los Angeles, won the 2:30 trot in straight heats at the Territorial fair, here today. Her best time was 2:14.

The purse was $2000. Audubon Boy goes after a new racing record tomorrow. One jockey injured his leg in a running race.

GREENE GETS THE FEDERAL.

EL PASO (Tex.) Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The deal by which the Federal smelter property is transferred to William C. Greene was completed today with the filing of a deed to the property. No announcement has been made as to when the smelter will be "blown in" again, but the action is expected shortly.

The price paid for the property was $675,000. It is located in East El Paso, and contains forty acres of valuable land in a building section, as well as the smelter property.

The Value of Charcoal.

Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Costs Nothing To Try.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purposes.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectively cleans and improves the complexion, it whitens the skin and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow Charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but 25 cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I got more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

THIS SHOOTING PECULIAR.

O'Brien Tells Police He Thought His Victim Was Burglar, but Circumstances Are Unusual.

Peculiar circumstances surround the shooting of William Nieme by A. K. O'Brien last evening, and the police are holding O'Brien, Nieme and Ralph Dorn, O'Brien's stepson, for investigation. According to the statements of officers, it was thought possible that Nieme and Dorn might have been room workers, but this was only theory.

Nieme was wounded slightly in the neck. O'Brien fired the shot from his room. He claims that Nieme and his own stepson were trying to force open the door of his room, and that he thought them burglars and fired. The trouble took place at No. 301 East First street. Nieme was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where his wound was dressed.

"Victor" News

Opera Records

The opera who regret none will end, can keep the achievements of the season fresh in their memory by purchasing the Victor Opera Records. We have records of every opera now on the stage in the city. Every masterpiece of music-reproduction.

The Aux-c-to-phone

We are glad to announce that we have received a shipment of the Victor Aux-c-to-phone (the $200 Victor). The Aux-c-to-phone is an instrument operated with electricity and compressed air. When records are played the listener imagines himself actually surrounded by a band or orchestra—a voice is heard with all the power of the original.

Hear the Victor-Victrola

Construct that the horn is constructed with all moving parts are concealed in a handsome mahogany cabinet. A listener told us the other day that the difference between the Victor-Victrola and the ordinary machine is the same difference that distinguishes woodwind instruments from brass—there is a soft, mellowness in its tone which is indescribable.

SPANKS WILL BE GIVEN UP.

Association Forms to Train Bad Children.

Will Bend Childish Twig to Grow Straightly.

Good Work Contemplated for Little Ones.

Los Angeles is about to take a step of mighty import. A step that will in time put the Whittier Reform School out of commission, lessen to an immense degree the taxes of $600,000 which the city now pays out yearly for the maintenance of insane asylums, State prisons, jails, sheriffs, police, and homes for feeble-minded children, and which will do a large part to make the Los Angeles of the future a safer, nobler, and better place to live.

This is the formation of a juvenile court association, which will be an organization of large-hearted men and women, such as exists in several other cities in the United States, notably in Denver and Chicago, to take up the many-sided problems of childhood, as the juvenile court alone could never do. To make the children of Los Angeles the business of the hour, so that the men and women of the tomorrow may be a goodlier race.

Los Angeles is going to give every child a chance. Invitations to assist in the formation of this association have been extended by the Juvenile Court Committee to a number of prominent men and women, and the first meeting will be held next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the directors' room of the Chamber of Commerce building.

NEED OF ASSISTANCE.

With each invitation sent out for this meeting is a statement of the purposes of the organization and explaining its necessity, especially as regards the raising of private funds for the active cooperation of the public with the work of the juvenile court.

In this direction the committee solicits membership in the Juvenile Court Association of all churches, clubs, and other organizations at an annual fee of $25, and of individuals at $5 a year. In this way it is proposed not only to raise the money which will participate in the proposed good work, but to widely spread the interest in the methods for bettering the condition of poor children, or of those needing guidance.

When twenty members of the association are secured, new officers will be elected and the association placed upon a permanent footing. The work will be pushed in cooperation with the juvenile court and detention home.

Already the twenty memberships have been secured. To the Young Woman's League of Pasadena, under the direction of Mrs. M. F. Fowler, belongs the honor of the first membership issued, this organization paying the first $25 into the treasury.

ENTHUSIASTIC WORKERS.

The Child Study Circle of Los Angeles was the second organization to join in this great effort for the children. The Local Civic Association and the Ethel Club of Los Angeles are the other two organizations members, the individual members making up the twenty consisting of the Juvenile Court Committee, Henry H. Klamroth, Mrs. W. J. Washburn, Leonard Merrill, Mrs. J. P. Sartori, Mrs. Nora McCartney, Mrs. M. B. Fowler and Miss E. L. Stoddard, and their friends.

The first dollar paid into the treasury came from a home missionary working in an obscure field in California. This young man responded out of his little with a dollar bill, which the committee feels almost like finding. An appeal was sent out last spring to every church in the local church federation to assist in some such effort, but the vacation period was at hand and the response was as yet. The church federation, however, has officially endorsed the movement.

The idea of this association was born at the time when Los Angeles county, after a hard fight, secured from the state legislature the payment of the probation officer's salary. San Francisco in the same effort was left out on occasion of the personal opposition of one or two of the legislators, and in that emergency the presiding judge called a meeting of the substantial men of the city, who furnished the money for probation officers, and also raised the funds after the earthquake to build a temporary detention home to house the court, this being the first court to get a place to carry on its proceedings.

CO-OPERATION NECESSARY.

Stimulated by this example, the Probation Committee and Superior judges sent out a strong appeal to the large-hearted citizens of Los Angeles to form a Juvenile Court Association. Judge Wilbur of the Juvenile Court said in regard to the matter:

I am more and more persuaded, as I see the way in which the work of the court enters into life of the people, that the juvenile court idea will form the rallying point about which almost all measures of reform with reference to the education and training of child life will center. The problem of the life itself. It is obvious therefore that the co-operation of the people is the proper condition of the work. Touching human life and activity at all points as does the juvenile court, it is obvious that there must be an elasticity which is so well under any law, and can only exist by the help of the cooperation of those who are willing to devote their money to the upbuilding of humanity.

I have said comparatively little with reference to the question of money in dealing with the problem of the juvenile court, and yet the fact that the Whittier State School is becoming depopulated, resulting in a large saving to the taxpayers is significant. Los Angeles city is today being taxed over $600,000 to support insane asylums, State prisons, jails, sheriffs, police, and homes for feeble-minded children, yearly. I know of no way in which money can be so well used to stem this awful drain as in the work of caring for those children who are so before the juvenile court.

DEATH OF MRS. REES.

Mrs. Hannah Rees after a short illness died at her home, No. 290 Gladys avenue, yesterday. She was a native of Wales, but had lived in Los Angeles for twenty years. Her husband, Lewis Rees, Mrs. J. C. Lewis, Mrs. H. C. Vigne, Mrs. Jennie Williams, Mrs. May Homer, daughters, and Llewellyn, William, John, Vivian and Edward Rees, sons, survive her. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

TELLS UNIONS TO OWN CITY.

"Pinhead" McCarthy Advises Its Capture.

Drates Lurid Picture of the Totemite's Paradise.

He Does His Politics Behind Locked Doors.

"Pinhead" McCarthy has sneaked into the municipal campaign of Los Angeles.

"Pinhead" McCarthy urges union workers in this city to vote for Stanley B. Wilson for Mayor on the ground that then Los Angeles can be controlled by organized labor—and its bosses—as San Francisco is at the present time.

Fearful of the break in the Carpenters' Union toward the Socialist party, "Pinhead" was projected into the breach to hold its wavering ranks together for Wilson and municipal ownership—by union strikers.

Behind locked doors and with guards stationed on the four corners of the roof and at every window and door, "Pinhead" McCarthy, the malodorous, besotted organizer of San Francisco, addressed Carpenters Union No. 153 at its San Pedro street headquarters Tuesday night and came out flat-footed for Stanley B. Wilson for Mayor of Los Angeles.

He has denied that he was in Los Angeles on a political mission and has given out interviews to newspapers saying that he was here merely upon union labor business. Tuesday night, however, from the platform of the Carpenters hall he raved and ranted against the present regime in the city's government and in lurid language painted the Utopia for the union workers which would follow the election of Stanley B. Wilson Mayor of Los Angeles.

"The union worker of San Francisco has seized the reins of government in that city and now dominates. The Citizens' Alliance is a second rate in Frisco. You can do the same in Los Angeles. You cannot hope to elect a full ticket the first time, but you should be satisfied if you can do so in three years."

"Wilson is one of us and we should all vote for him. If he is put in as Mayor and if we can secure one or two police commissioners we can break the tyrannical yoke which the Citizens' Alliance of this city has fitted about your neck." Thus spoke McCarthy.

This is but a portion of the mildest part of his tirade. McCarthy is a fluent speaker and prides himself upon it.

"PINHEAD" TO THE RESCUE.

"There were 3000 workmen in the parade Labor Day in Los Angeles," said McCarthy. "If these men vote as a unit you can seize the reins of government in this city and for once you can get your just dues. The time is ripe. The two dominant parties are split sunder, and if the union members want to run this city and be the controlling element, as we are in San Francisco, they should do everything in their power to accomplish the election of Mr. Wilson."

Just prior to the speech of McCarthy the union transacted its routine business. Seven new members were admitted to membership and a compulsory chum was read from the Carpenters Union in Sacramento saying that some Los Angeles carpenters were working at that city and had neglected to send their transfer cards in that city's union. The secretary was instructed to look into the matter.

McCarthy stated that he had been recalled to San Francisco owing to developments in the present graft investigation and that he might not return here until the week before election. He urged the union men to turn out for Wilson and to attend his meetings.

MUCH-PATENTED ROLLER.

In Answer to Suit Brought by Pavement Company, Hutton Produces Five Previous Patents.

Sutherland Hutton has filed in the Federal Court an answer to the complaint of the Petrolite Pavement Company, in which the company claimed that he was infringing a patent owned by John West Fitzgerald and controlled by them. This patent was alleged to cover the form of tamping roller which Hutton has been using.

Hutton has entered a general denial, claiming the Fitzgerald patent does not hold, as the device was covered by five former patents already. Attached to the answer are four affidavits, by William Mulholland, H. Hawwood, T. S. Hutton and Sutherland Hutton, that the apparatus in use is made under the patents of G. Munday and J. Cook, of date 1888, fourteen years previous to the Fitzgerald patent.

The device over which the wrangle has arisen is a roller with peculiarly shaped "compression shoes" or flat spikes. After a road has been plowed and flooded with oil, this is used to churn the dirt and oil together, forming a close mixture. This method of mixing is the distinctive feature of Hutton's system of road making.

COMMISSIONER GEO. A. KILBEY, who will arrive on Saturday.

Commissioner of Salvation Army and His Wife Will Arrive in This City on Saturday—Many Entertaining Addresses During Their Visit Here Are Announced.

Commissioner George A. Kilbey and wife of the Salvation Army are due to arrive in this city on Saturday, and will be entertained by the local posts. Commissioner Kilbey occupies the highest possible rank, aside from that of Gen. Booth, and has command of all the territory west of Chicago, the eastern territory to the Atlantic Coast being under the command of Commissioner Eva Booth. Commissioner Kilbey began as a private in the army twenty-seven years ago, and has risen step by step by reason of his great executive ability and his power as a public speaker. He has been in command in Europe, Africa and Australia, prior to being assigned to America, and is full of the most startling reminiscences.

His wife is in charge of the stum and rescue work of the army, throughout the territory under his command. Mrs. Kilbey has been in this work all parts of the world wherever her husband has gone, and in the Boer war, at other times, she has been a help to thousands of suffering women. Like her husband, she is an accomplished entertainer, and with the aid of a stereopticon she presents her subjects with startling interest.

HORSES CAUSE DEATH.

Veteran Teamster Loses Control of His Animals and is Hurled from Wagon.

James Murray, father of Assistant Jailor P. H. Murray, the father of nine sons and one daughter, and a lovable old Irishman, died at a Receiving Hospital, yesterday after a long illness, the result of a runaway accident on Downey avenue.

James Murray had been a teamster since he was a boy. He drove a team into Los Angeles from Fresno more than thirty years ago, and had always been a reliable, hard-working man. Yesterday he was engaged in moving furniture from the home of his daughter, with whom he lived, at No. 112 North Avenue 19. On Downey avenue, near Avenue 20, he lost control of his team and they swerved from the street into an alley. Murray was thrown from his seat and was caught between the wagon and a building.

Apparently his injuries consisted only of serious lacerations about the head, a cut over the left eye and his left ear split in two, but it developed that he had been injured internally, and in a very few minutes he died.

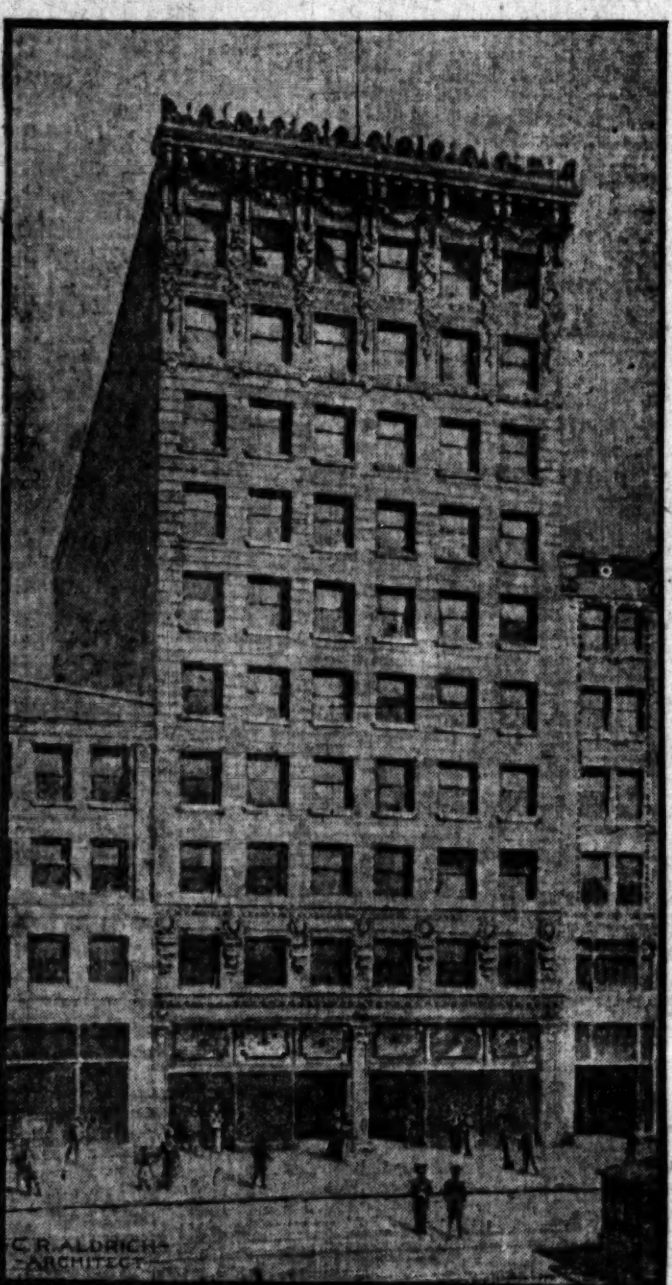

Mrs. Murray, wife of deceased, has been, for a month past, seriously ill with rheumatism, and was being treated at the Receiving Hospital. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

ACCOUNT FOR STEWARDSHIP.
Associated Charities Holds
Annual Meeting.
Special Tribute Paid to Mrs.
Gibbs and Mrs. James.
Prosperous Condition Shown
in Two Reports.
A prosperous condition and a large amount of work done during the year
were reported at the annual meeting of the Associated Charities held yesterday. The public contributes to the funds of the association, and it has therefore always been the custom to make a public account of its stewardship.
This year's is the thirteenth annual account, and is particularly interesting because of the work done in connection with the San Francisco disaster.
President H. W. Frank first addressed
the meeting. He said in part:
"The year 1906 will go down in history
as a most memorable year to the Pacific Coast. It will ever bring to memory the misfortune by earthquake
and fire that befell our fellow citizens of San Francisco, and neighboring cities. Our services were immediately placed at the disposal of the public committee, jointly with the Catholic Benevolent Society and the Bethlehem
Institution, to assist all unfortunate from the stricken cities. It is not giving undue praise when I say that these services were invaluable,
coming as they did from men and women trained in the work, knowing how to avoid imposition from the unworthy, who usually follow in the wake of any great disaster with false
pretenses and false claims.
"This extra work not only occupied
the time of our officers, but required additional expenditures on our part. We were also able to assist other committees in supplying transportation to mechanics and others who desired either to seek work or to reach the homes of friends or relatives.
"It is with great pleasure that the officers of your society thank you and
the generous public for your liberality.
But let us once more urge you to be mindful of the noble work of charity
during the coming year. A growing city has growing needs. We ask that you not only help us with your own contributions, but give your influence with your friends and neighbors.
"SECRETARY'S REPORT.
T. J. Stuart, the secretary of the association, then followed with a report on the financial year, the work accomplished, and the aims of the association. In part he said:
"There is a satisfaction in presenting this thirteenth annual report, because the progress reported a year ago has been continued. The generosity of our friends permitted an increase in our working staff, and thus the association
was able to meet the new responsibilities imposed at the time of the great disaster that befell San Francisco.
"The citizen and the stranger, the old and the young, the wronged and those who suffer innocently the wrong
of others, come to us for advice and assistance. If one asks aid, the question is, what does he need, and how can the need be met? The correct answering of those questions mark the difference between simple alms giving,
which can only live over tomorrow's misery, and scientific charity, which seeks to develop self-respect and self-support.
"We are coming more and more to appreciate the fact that the one great need of the destitute is human sympathy and friendship. The test of true charity is not what is given, but the way and the spirit in which it is given.
We have accomplished the desired end.
"Every city has its peculiar burden and problem. Ours is in the great number of persons who come here sick and unable to work. They have been lured here by the climate and many of them are entirely without means when they arrive. How to help and care for this increasing class is a problem that must be solved in the interest of humanity and our city.
"TIMELY AID APPRECIATED.
"We sincerely thank all who co-operated with us and came so nobly to our assistance in the days that followed the San Francisco disaster. It was due to their loyalty that we were able to relieve the many that sought
us. To the generous public for the donation of clothing, bedding, furniture, etc., during the same trying days
we also express our greatest appreciation and thanks, especially to Mrs.
P. G. Gophard and the employees of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company
for their donation of each of $50 for infant's outfits to be forwarded to the families of the San Francisco sufferers.
The Associated Charities of San Francisco
for a maternity hospital; also to Mrs.
Howard Huntington, Mrs. Jarvis Barlow, Mrs. Ernest Bryant and others for their donation of infants' clothing. To the ladies of Highland Park and Garrity, who, under the direction of Mrs. R. H. Lindsay, formed a sewing circle for the purpose of making new clothing for the San Francisco sufferers, we express heartfelt appreciation and thanks. The Young Women's Christian Association, we also thank for their generous donation of clothing
for the San Francisco sufferers.
"TRIBUTE TO TWO WOMEN.
The San Francisco disaster is too familiar to call for any detail. The prompt action and generosity of our Los Angeles public is widely known,
but we should like to express our deep gratitude to two women who worked with us in behalf of the sufferers—to Mrs. W. S. James, who immediately called upon us, offering her personal services in any way, and who for days
not only labored in close relation with our office force, but organized a corps
of workers who daily aided and relieved us during the great pressure;
and to Mrs. Jefferson D. Gibbs, president of the Woman's Parliament, who so quickly and nobly responded to the special line of work shouldered by her of obtaining employment for the San Francisco sufferers seeking our city, we express our everlasting grate-
tude for her cooperation and the spirit
with which she met all requests from this office, and the good work accomplished by her, that of helping others
to help themselves—the essence of true charity.
During the past year the association
undertook the relief of 1329 new cases.
Nearly 2100 visits were made, either
in behalf of persons being aided,
and in addition 128 sick calls were made. This shows a daily average of about eight persons whose wants were being attended to, and of these five
each day were new cases.
"F. B. LEWIS MARRIED.
The marriage of Miss Florence
Warth, daughter of Mrs. Marcus Warth, to Frederick Bradley Lewis of Los Angeles was celebrated at the home of the bride in Cincinnati last evening. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father only the immediate relatives of the family were present.
After a short honeymoon in Mexico
Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will take up their residence in this city.

WATERS OF SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY.
For more than a year the Hydrographic
Branch of the United States
Geological Survey has had under way
an investigation of the ground waters of the San Joaquin Valley; and although the field work has by no means been completed, the results obtained
indicate that results of great value to the residents of the region will be obtained. Covering an area of about 10, 000 square miles, this valley constitutes about two-thirds of the wide interior
plain known as the Great Valley of California and is the granary of the entire southwest. The quantity of staple food products raised within its borders exceeds that produced in any similar area south of the Oregon line and west of the Colorado River. In the past irrigation within this area has depended almost entirely upon waters brought to the valley by means of the great streams
that rise in the Sierras and flow down their western slopes. In only a few localities, as at Lindsay and Porterville,
where which citrus fruits are raised successfully, or in the neighborhood of small colonies recently established near the center of the valley,
are underground waters utilized to any considerable extent; yet the work of the Survey indicates that one of the largest artesian basins in the Southwest lies along the axis of this valley;
and that about its borders are zones in which ground waters are available with but moderate pumping lifts. The utilization of these ground waters will benefit the valley not only directly through the irrigation effected by them, but extensive use of the surface waters. It is hoped that by calling attention to the wide distribution and great accessibility
of the artesian waters, an impetus will be given to the colonization of lands now quite uncultivated because gravity waters are not available for use upon them. Growth of this character would result in very material increase to the general wealth of the State.
Interesting problems promise to arise
in the course of the study of these waters. In certain areas the artesian water is so highly charged with salts of various kinds that they are unfit for use either for domestic supplies or for irrigation. Such areas will be outlined, so that those who contemplate the increased development of the agricultural possibilities of the valley may be warned away from them.
Other ground waters, however, because much too alkaline, under present conditions, for plant growth. In these cases the problem will be to develop the waters, perhaps eventually draining the alkaline lands and bringing them into such condition that they can be reclaimed for agriculture.
"The report which will be issued as soon as practicable after completion of the field work may be obtained free of charge by applying to the Director of the Geological Survey at Washington, D. C.

SETTLERS PLAN JUBILEE.
Preparing Big Time in Imperial Valley to Celebrate Saving of Their Lands from Flood.
L. Q. Sinaard, of the passenger department of the Southern Pacific at San Francisco, and N. R. Martin, district passenger agent for Southern California, returned yesterday from a week's tour of the Imperial Valley country with a special party of California newspaper men.
The representatives of the press
were the guests of the Southern Pacific to the Colorado River country in order that they might see for themselves the magnitude of the work undertaken in the diverting of the waters of the Colorado to their old channel, and of the projects under way for the irrigation and development of 1,000,000 acres of the richest land in the United States.
Trips were taken to the intake work
of the California Development Company, where the Colorado enters the Imperial Valley, and a few weeks ago;
to the Laguna dam site above Yuma,
where the residents are busy planning a jubilee to be held in December
for the celebration of the saving of their lands.
"CRUSHED BY SCRAPER.
Filled With Dirt It Falls on Teamster
and Inflicts Possibly Fatal
Injuries.
Eugene Plaisance, a teamster and
man of family living at No. 738 East Sixteenth street, was seriously injured
yesterday morning, by being crushed by a scraper.
Plaisance was driving under the dump hole of a cut-under used in excavating in Ninth Hope street, between Seventh and Eighth streets,
when the framework of the cut-under crushed down upon him.
Passing around the body of the deceased was a heavy chain, and the teamster was crushed across this chain. It is feared that he will die from internal
injuries.
Receiving Hospital, his left arm, which had been broken, was set,
and several bad cuts and bruises about the head were dressed. He was then removed, under the care of the American Hospital Association.
This is the third accident that has befallen Plaisance during the last four months. He says that if he lives, he will bring suit for damages against the contractor.
"MAN AND DAUGHTER HURT.
G. Turinetti, an Italian, who runs a grocery store at No. 126 North Main street, had his right leg broken in a runaway accident yesterday afternoon.
He was driving his delivery horse along Fourth street when the animal became frightened. Reared on the seat,
was his little four-year-old daughter,
and, in his endeavor to hold the child
in the rig and stop the horse at the same time, he fell from the wagon. His right leg was so badly broken, just above the ankle, that the bone protruded through the skin. The child was thrown from the rig a block farther up the street, but was only slightly injured. The father was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

TO BE TEN STORIES HIGH
The Trustee Company to Go the Limit with Its
New Building
At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Trustee Company yesterday, it was decided that the new building at 424-426-428 South Broadway, known as Trustee Property
No. 2, shall be built ten stories high—the full limit allowed
under the city ordinance—instead of six stories, as heretofore contemplated and advertised.
This action was taken on account of the great demand for first-class office space in the most central part of the business section, and on account of the increased earning power of a ten-story building over one of six stories.
This property and the improvements will represent an expenditure of $525,000. The ownership has been divided into 525 Units for individual investment, which will be sold to investors at the price of $1000 each in any amount desired.
The property will be managed by The Trustee Company.
The rental returns and proceeds of the property will be divided in proportion to the number of Units held by investors.
From the net rental returns, the owners of Units are paid preferred dividends at the rate of $50.00 per annum in quarterly installments, payable on the 10th day of each March,
June, September and December.
Two-thirds of the surplus above the preferred dividends is paid to the Unit Owners pro rata, the remainder going to
The Trustee Company for its services.
At the present rate of rentals in first-class office buildings in the city, the net rental dividends payable to the investors in his building will be considerably more than 7 1/2 per cent.
per annum. In addition to the rental returns, the investors share the increased value of the property in proportion to the amounts invested.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

"Antonia" at the opera last night, the complete artistic success of the production was an even more important factor than the amount of popular favor that attended it in places to positive enthusiasm.

Antonia's play. And the bravos and bravissimos were won by the young artist who was making his first appearance at the opera. These of the novelties to the audience, but Trumbull took the audience of a favorite, and received several encores.

There were no doubts as to the success of the company they were given last night, for Antonia has been the place by a number of merits, not only a voice, but art in its own right, and a dramatic ability, which is as subtle as Iago's, and as tragic as Lear. The delivery of Rigoletto's great aria, "The Song of the Sparrows," was superb, and the audience was in a state of rapt attention.

A&C Mocha and Java Coffee

Has Stood the Test of Taste

This splendid coffee of ours is sold on the "money back" principle—and we have yet to refund the money to a single purchaser of it.

The reason is obvious. In the first place, this coffee is not the ordinary Mocha and Java. It is roasted and blended by us in the most scientific manner. Hours are spent at the testing table experimenting with a new shipment. It has to be up to the standard of uniformity and quality before placed on sale.

Have you ever asked anybody using this coffee what they think of it? Ask your neighbor. We will be satisfied with her decision.

CHANCE AT ONE SHARE

Development work on our five Indian Chief claims is now being pushed with all possible speed, and large quantities of gold ore are being blocked out daily and put on the dump ready for the mill. Dividends should soon follow quickly, and the next advance in the price of this stock now selling at the low price of 10 cents a share will be to 25 cents December 1. After that date there will positively be no more of this valuable stock for sale at the price of 10 cents, so send or bring in your order at once.

Our Company, the Manhattan Mining Venture Company, is an Arizona corporation with a capitalization of $1,500,000—1,500,000 shares each with a par value of $1, fully paid and non-assessable.

Our corporation owns eight of the most VALUABLE GOLD MINING CLAIMS in the State of Nevada; they are the Indian Chief Nos. 1, 2 and 3, Indian Chief Extension Nos. 1 and 2 and three other claims known as the Butterfly mine, which are located within one-half mile of the old Ophir mine that yielded more than SEVEN AND ONE-HALF MILLIONS OF GOLD from 1872 to 1904.

The five Indian Chief claims are located in the heart of Manhattan which, though but little over six months old, is already conceded by every well-known mining man to be the richest gold mining district of Nevada.

RICHNESS OF OUR CLAIMS

Five of our claims, the Indian Chief and Indian Chief Extension properties, contain outcroppings of quartz ledge that assay as high as $470.45. When we tell you that it requires only five free milling ore, and that taken from our claims is free milling, to put a mine on a dividend paying basis, you can readily estimate the amount of profits our company should earn when we get to milling $470.45, and while we should earn when we get to milling $1000 and $1500 ore, to say nothing of the ENORMOUS RETURNS there will be for the STOCKHOLDERS, when we locate the MOTHER LODE of the placer deposits, which have just recently been found.

RICHNESS OF SURROUNDING CLAIMS

On the property of the Building Mining Company immediately adjoining our Indian Chief claims, and within a stone's throw of our property, a force of miners has sunk a 70-foot shaft and is taking out ore that assays better than $1000. This same ledge is identical to those of our property, some of which assayed $470.45; same formation, etc., and expert mining men who have examined our property say that these ledges are wider and more valuable in depth than the ledge at the Building Mining Company.

On the opposite side of our Indian Chief claims $1500 ore has been struck and expert mining men say the same vein runs entirely through one of our Indian Chief claims. It was additional to this wealth that we know in our claims, our mining superintendent discovered the other day valuable placer deposits. Miners rushed to the vicinity of our claims in hundreds when this discovery became public, and there is practically no doubt whatever that the MOTHER LODE also is on our claims.

PLACER ORE DISCOVERED

Following is what Manhattan Mail, the biggest paper in Manhattan, says of the placer discovery on our property:

"Mining activity is at fever heat in the vicinity of the Indian Chief claims, owned by the Manhattan Mining Company, located east of the Building property. Rather unexpected and valuable placer ground has been developed on the former property during the past seven days. Dry washers are now at work. The gold granules are coarse, regular and sharp, showing the placer metal has not been carried far from the point of liberation. The finding of gold in such quantities has had the effect of renewed placer activity in that section of the district. Property owners are preparing to begin a campaign of development for the purpose of finding, if possible, the mother lode."

J. W. MUSSELMAN & CO., Los Angeles:
Please send me your illustrated booklet telling me all about your mining enterprise and MANHATTAN, NEVADA'S NEWEST AND RICHEST GOLD MINING DISTRICT. I am interested in the same and may decide to purchase some stock of your company.

The finding of the placer ore alone was sufficient to warrant our raising the price of our stock to 75c or $1.00 a share, but we did not. We are going to continue selling it at 10 cents a share as we have agreed to do until December 1, after which time it will be advanced to 25 cents per share.

PACIFIC MONTHLY SAYS

That Manhattan is the richest gold mining camp in the world, considering its age, there is not for a minute the slightest doubt. Following is what the Pacific Monthly for October says about our property and the Manhattan district:

"Around the town of Manhattan, which came into existence last winter by reason of the great discoveries which followed the location of the April Fool mining claim, there are two vast summit ridges, which constitute the north and south sides of the canyon in which the town of Manhattan is built. On both sides of these ridges mines are being developed. On the extreme west of the north ridge, beginning with the MANHATTAN MINES, PAY-TURE CLAIMS, there follows a long string of mining claims such as the Bulldog, Paymaster, Nemo, Mustang, Broncho, Chipmunk, April Fool, Standard and Dexter. On the south ridge may be named the Mayne, Double Eagle, Indian Camp, Little Gray Union No. 2, Jumping Jack, Joker, Stray Dog, Kelly, Fracton, Cowboy, Annie Laurie, Portland and Manhattan Consolidated."

"The naked facts, new-born of Mother Truth, concerning Manhattan seem miraculous and mythical. Never since the halcyon days of Virginia City has a camp sprung into existence which gave such instant fulfillment of mighty promise. Never, in all the world's history of mining, have such high averages of values been sent to the smelters in the infancy of a camp. The average value of ore shipped to smelters up to a recent date was $400 a ton. It is a fact that the ORE discarded upon the dumps at MANHATTAN MINES is more valuable than most of the ore shipped from California mines."

"It is another truth that the output of MANHATTAN CAMP in the first sixty days outlived the united production of Goldfield and Tonopah camps in the same period. A third and consequential fact is that none of the Nevada gold camps has ever blocked out so much high-value ore in so few weeks as Manhattan. STRIKES HERE, STRIKES THERE, STRIKES EVERYWHERE, keep the camp in an incessant whirl of excitement, and in a perpetual burst of astonishment. The coldest, calmest man becomes enthusiastic over Manhattan before he has been on the ground twenty-four hours."

"Most of the mines paid from the start. Almost without exception the prospects which have been developed have proved more valuable even than the discoverers themselves believed. When they scratched the surface, Manhattan literally has sprung into existence like Minerva, full panoplied from the brow of Jove." In one bound it presses to the van of the Nevada camps, the youngest of all but the giant chief. The gold excitement at Manhattan is undying. The stampede to the camp has continued now for six months. The pace which characterized its earlier days has not suffered any perceptible check. In fact, it has been on the ground twenty-four hours."

from a substantial point of view, it has increased. More people are investing in Manhattan today than ever, and investors are commencing to arrive from the Far East, several of the late arrivals being from England."

OUR PROPOSITION

We are now offering a small allotment of treasury stock to pay for development work at the low price of 10 cents a share, par value $1. Kindly bear in mind a few of the facts while weighing the advisability of joining us in this enterprise.

Our property is not a prospect, but a legitimate GOLD MINE.

We own our eight claims free and clear. They were deeded to us directly from the original locator and paid for in full by us. Development work has already been commenced and will be pushed until the five Indian Chief claims, which are to be opened up first, are on a DIVIDEND PAYING BASIS. Afterward, the Butterfly mine, which contains ore ledges that are almost as rich in gold as the Indian Chief claims, will be put on a dividend paying basis.

When you invest in our company it will not be six months or a year until you have from it again, or maybe never, but you will receive a report setting forth the progress being made at our mines every now and then. In other words, it is the intention of our company to keep every stockholder, whether he owns 100 or 10,000 shares of this stock, well posted on the progress being made as our mine superintendent, who is immediately on the ground.

WHAT YOUR MONEY WILL BUY

FOR $1.10 YOU CAN GET 100 WORTH OF STOCK—100 SHARES
FOR $1.20 YOU CAN GET 120 WORTH OF STOCK—120 SHARES

PATRIOT RUST GOES BEYOND.

DEATH COMES AT HIS HOME IN SOUTH PASADENA.

Career Full of Stirring Incidents.
Saw Service in Medical Corps in Burnside's Army and Did Much to Relieve Suffering in Connection With Exodus to Kansas.

Horatio Nelson Rust, former Indian agent, noted archeologist and member of the medical corps of Gen. Burnside's army, died yesterday at his home on Lyndon street, South Pasadena.

Amherst, Mass., was his birthplace.
The year was 1828. At an early age he began his business career in the Collinsville Ax Works, with which his father was associated.

At the breaking out of the War of the Rebellion in 1861, he offered his services to the government and joined the medical corps in the field before Antietam, serving with Surgeon Warner
of the Sixteenth Connecticut Infantry.
He was ordered by Gen. Burnside to superintend the transportation of wounded men from the field to their homes, a delicate and responsible position. Upon his return he saw active service at City Point and in the memorable days before Petersburg. At these points he was acting as assistant surgeon,
and with a corps of competent assistants did much to relieve the sufferings of the wounded, and was in a position to see many of the horrors of modern warfare.

After the war he engaged in business in Chicago. It was in that period that the exodus to Kansas began. The sufferings of this unfortunate people at once enlisted his sympathy, and he was for many months a worker in and the honored secretary of the Chicago Relief Association. During this time he was visited by the Rev. Josiah Henson, who was the original "Uncle Tom's Cabin," who traveled all the way from his home in Canada and who was at that time upwards of 90 years of age.

From this question his interest was transferred to the Indian tribes under the charge of the government, and he became an active member of an association for their protection and preservation.

While engaged in business in Massachusetts and Connecticut he began the study and collection of objects representing the prehistoric races of the United States, which he has resulted in an extremely valuable collection,
giving him an important national reputation as an archeologist. His researches among the mounds of Missouri and other localities were particularly successful, and he was among the first to suggest the theory of the origin of these people, held by scientists today, which has been proved
he made an extensive exploring trip
into Mexico and enriched his cabinet with many valuable finds. On other occasions he visited the public of Mexico, the homes of the old dwellers
of Arizona, and many other localities of interest, the results of which together with many explorations in Southern California, are to be found in collections which have been placed in Yale College, the University of Pennsylvania and Beloit College, as well as the private collection in his home.

In 1881 he removed to Pasadena. In 1886 he was business manager of the Citrus Fair in Chicago, which he had
for many years advocated, and which did much to place the products of Southern California fairly before the country. In 1893 he was appointed Indian agent for Southern California, and the appointment was a surprise to him, as it came unthought and unexpected. Probably his fitness for the position had become known to the department during his travels in antiquarian fields.

ROSTON, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dis-

the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railroad, who is now in Boston, accompanied by Vice-President and Gen-

received the following telegram from

"Inaugural party at this place send

This telegram means that the road has successfully solved the problem of crossing the Sierra Madre Mountain, a task which many people had declared impossible, and that its line is now over the continental divide of these mountains—the only road that has ever crossed them.

The track now is laid within twelve miles of the extreme elevation of the Sierra Madre, at 1440 feet, and the line is graded to within six miles of the extreme level.

The maximum grade has been but 2.5
per cent, to the mile, which has been compensated for by curvatures.

WOULD ANNUL MARRIAGE.
Father of Prince de Broglie, Who Married California Girl, Files Demand in Court.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) PARIS, Nov. 14.—Prince Amode de Broglie, father of Prince Robert de Broglie, has filed in the Paris courts a demand for the annulment of his son's marriage to Miss Estelle Alexander of California. Miss Alexander was married to Prince Robert de Broglie August 14, in Chicago, and it was claimed at the time that according to the laws of France the marriage was not valid because the Prince's divorce from a former wife had not been approved, and because his second marriage had not been recorded according to the French laws.

Prince Robert, on the other hand, claimed that his marriage was legal under the laws of Illinois, and in Paris recently showed a letter from the French Vice-Consul in Chicago stating that the marriage had been recorded with his government and was legal under the French law. The Prince added that he had instructed his lawyer in Paris to bring suit against his family to compel them to recognize the marriage and also to recover interest to which he was entitled.

"COTTON KING" IN SOAP.

Daniel Sully Quits His Spectacular Speculations for a New Enterprise.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Daniel J. Sully, once known as the "cotton king," has abandoned the field in which he made his spectacular coups and has gone into soap and tallow. He has become the head of a soap corporation which has $1,200,000 capital. The plant is in Brooklyn.

Sully, it was stated yesterday, was behind the recent movement in the tallow market which has forced that commodity up 25 per cent. within the last few weeks.

Sully said last night that he was not trying to corner the market. "I went into the soap business some little time ago," he continued, "and since September 1, we have been accumulating a year's supply ahead, that's all. We have got it and now I expect to see the price of tallow slump off some. We have no idea of forming or entering into an American soap trust. Trusts are not popular just now."

BUELOW TELLS STATE SECRETS.

German Chancellor Replies to Opponent's Speech.

Ignores Attack on Kaiser to Describe France.

Then Makes Strong Plea for American Reciprocity.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
BERLIN, Nov. 14.—Chancellor Von Buelow, from the place in the Reichstag where he fell unconscious seven months ago, spoke for forty-five minutes today on Germany's foreign relations. The highly interested audience included the Austro-Hungarian Minister, Ambassador and Mrs.
Charlemagne Tower, several other Ambassadors and quite fifty members of the Diplomatic Corps. Princess Von Buelow sat in the front box.

When the Reichstag was called to order, Herr Bassermann, National Liberal, following up his question of yesterday, asking for information regarding the country's foreign relations, said that since Prince Bismarck left Germany, respected and loved by her neighbors, the country's foreign policy has entered on a period of journeys, ships, telegrams and speeches and courtesies, a period of unsteadiness which caused disquiet
not only at home, but abroad.

SAYS MEDICINE RULE KAISER.
He then alluded to reports that a group of Spiritualists had influence
at court, saying that from what one
had read during the last few days,
"the suggested spiritualistic romances
and backstairs history reminded one of the Byzantine period, with its flatterers, or the Cabinet government of William III. or the cabal under Emperor Frederick Wilhelm IV."

The statement was greeted with cries "Quite right" from various parts of the chamber.

Herr Bassermann then described Germany's position among her neighbors as isolated, saying she had no
firm friends, not even Italy or Austria.

CHANCELLOR REPLIES.
Chancellor Von Buelow's reply was especially marked by his old-time
clearness of enunciation and harmonious succession of sentences, but there was less vivacity and lightness of style than formerly. After thanking the members of the house for their expressions of sympathy during his illness, the Chancellor referred first to the relations between Germany and France. He related a conversation which he had with the late Leon Gam-
betta, in which the French statesman
said:

"France has sunk to her knees."
Von Buelow's reply was: "Up and forward!"

The motions of France, the Chancellor added, were like a thermometer
with a pressure of the hand the quick-silver rose or fell.

"I may remark here," he continued,
"that this vivacity of French patriotism is very strong, as is the ambition of the French people, and also the traditional brilliant qualities of our neighbors which require us to be alert
and armed so that we may protect the estate we lost on the Vosges and won

During the course of his speech in the Reichstag today Chancellor Von Buelow said:

WANTS RECIPROCITY.
"Our relations with the United States continue on a most friendly
basis, resting as they do, upon historical and natural reasons. The frontiers of the countries do not touch nor do our political interests collide anywhere. In order to smooth our economic relations it will be necessary to arrange a mutually beneficial agreement in an obliging spirit. As both sides have this spirit, it seems impossible that we should not come to an understanding."

"I wish to take advantage of this opportunity to say," continued the Chancellor, "that we are grateful for the attitude of the United States at the Algeiras conference. The United States had only a slight measure of interest at Algeiras and took a reserved attitude, but throughout it was impartial. The United States' excellent representative, Henry D. White, took every opportunity to harmonize
antagonisms and to contribute to an agreement honorable for all the states concerned."

"That was the second great service
the United States had contributed to the peace of the world. The first was assisting in the restoration of peace
between Russia and Japan."

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

BUILD ONLY SIX STORIES NOW.

TWO MORE NEXT SEASON FOR HOTEL WENTWORTH.

Temporary Roof Will Be Placed and Work Will Be Stopped Till Spring—Not a Single Crack Has Appeared in the Walls Anywhere, the Management Says.

Office of The Times, No. 25 E. Raymond Ave. PASADENA, Nov. 14.—An announcement was made today that the sixth story of the Hotel Wentworth is completed and a temporary roof will be placed on the structure and work stopped until next spring. The step was taken only after mature deliberation, but it was finally decided that it would not be wise to attempt to finish the entire edifice at this time. When the first season comes to an end a construction crew will be put to work and the remaining stories will be added before the winter months set in. Both of the wings of the hotel have already reached their full height of six stories, and will be finished. The main part of the building will ultimately be eight stories in height, but for the present will be left the same height as the wings. The reason given for stopping work is that it is not thought advisable to take any chances of a concrete requires plenty of time in which to cure, and a half between now and the time the hotel will open would hardly be sufficient.

The work of installing the steam-heating plant for the big hotel is about completed, and within the next two weeks the machinery will be ready for use. As soon as it is ready the steam will be turned on, and day and night for at least a month will be run under full pressure in order that the masonry of the building may be thoroughly dry. It is stated by the management that not a single crack has appeared in the walls anywhere up to the present, and the great structure is as solid as a mass of granite. Part of the work of the building has already arrived, and the carpets will be here by the end of the week. The decorating of the lower floor is all but completed, and as soon as the carpets arrive the work of laying them will commence. When the carpets are in place the furniture will be installed, and by January 1 all will be in readiness to receive the guests. The determination to stop work at the sixth story means that there will be but 26 bedrooms available for this season, instead of 32, as was intended, but Gen. Wentworth states that by changing people around he will be able to accommodate all of his old guests who have spoken for rooms.

"We are making this change in order to relieve our guests of all possible trouble," said Gen. Wentworth today. "Everything is in perfect satisfactory as far as it goes, and when the coming season is over we will remove work and finish the building as originally planned."

DEATH OF S. W. BARNARD.
Silas W. Barnard of Pasadena died this afternoon at the California Hospital in Los Angeles. He had been a resident of Southern California for sixteen years, the latter five years of which he spent in Pasadena. He leaves a widow and one son, Louis Barnard.

Y.M.C.A. NIGHT SCHOOL.
The night school classes of the Y.M.C.A. will begin tomorrow night, when the prospective students will meet with the teachers at the association building and receive their instructions concerning their work. The outline for the first season's work has been completed, and the officials of the association feel very much encouraged by the interest which has been manifested in the school.

Spanish, English, mechanical drawing, commercial arithmetic, penmanship, book-keeping, and music will be the subjects taught during the first term. So far the Spanish class seems to have the largest enrollment, and the enrollment of students in that subject is unexpectedly large. It is probable that at this time it is thought unwise to attempt to cover too much ground.

PASADENA BRIEFS.
Harry Balaon of Harkness drive, while climbing in the mountains with some friends Monday, slipped from the trail and fell a distance of several feet onto a rocky ledge beneath. His terror-stricken companions started for help and finally succeeded in pulling him back from his precarious position. He was brought to Pasadena, where medical attendance was procured, although he received a badly broken arm and several abrasions about the head and body.

John Dixon, the North Fair Oaks avenue "billed pig" keeper, who preferred to serve ninety days in jail to paying a fine of $300, concluded today that he had had enough of the city and was ready to leave. He had some twenty-seven days more to serve, and in consideration of the fact that he was receiving no money, paid over $25 into the city treasury.

The little daughter of H. J. Greenlund, South Main street, was struck by an automobile this morning and severely bruised. Luckily the machine was not traveling at a rapid pace, else the child must have been seriously hurt, if not killed. As it was, she was thrown down and a badly shaken up. The machine was being driven by William Stanton. No blame is attached to the driver, as the child ran out directly in front of the car.

DECLINE ESPEE OFFER.

San Pedro City Trustees Reject Proposition for the Exchange of Water Frontage.

SAN PEDRO, Nov. 14.—A proposition to exchange the water frontage of the city of San Pedro with the city of Los Angeles, was rejected by the trustees of the city of San Pedro last night by Superintendent H. Ingram of the Southern Pacific, offering to exchange certain streets on Timms Point along the inner breakwater for other streets in the city. The exchange was made. This motion was adopted by a unanimous vote of the board.

It is stated that Superintendent Ingram refused to consider any proposition relative to a lease on any frontage controlled by his company on the inner harbor and has stated that unless the city will make the exchange of streets asked for on Timms Point, the Southern Pacific will abandon the building of the proposed pier slip at that locality.

Notice to vacate has been served upon the various companies which have been using wharfage at the foot of Tenth street owned by the Southern Pacific. The city has taken to the streets the Southern Pacific desires to extend its wharfage from its present terminus in a southerly direction across Timms Point. Should this be done, several thousand feet of additional wharfage will be provided on the inner harbor.

The fishermen who have been asked to vacate have requested the Board of Trustees to provide them with land on the San Pedro side of the bay, and state that unless such provision is made, they will be forced to leave their business to the east side. There are about two hundred men and some thirty boats in the fishing industry here and everything possible will be done to assure sufficient wharfage for the transaction of the business on this side of the bay.

Bids were opened last night by the Board of Trustees for $40,000 worth of city bonds which were recently voted. Eight bids were submitted and the bonds were awarded to the lowest bidder, a local contractor, at a premium of $2,180. Frank Burns, secretary of the local City Bonds Committee, announced yesterday from O. V. Eaton, secretary of the Development Society of the city, that the bonds will be sold at a premium of $2,180.

TEST STRUCTURE'S STRENGTH.

Heavy Weights Are Placed on the Sixty Tons at Long Beach for That Purpose.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 14.—Supt. William Behm, in charge of the construction of Hotel Sixty, began today the work of testing the columns, beams and floors of the hotel in the east and west wings not affected by last Friday's disaster. The purpose is to determine whether or not there is any necessity of leveling the entire structure. The tests consist of loading the columns and beams with 200 pounds of weight per square foot. The architect's specifications require a carrying weight of 160 pounds per square foot. The measurements showed not a hair's breadth of settlement in any of the beams or columns. The architect, with the exception of the men employed in the testing, no one was allowed in the building, as the contractor says the reinforcing at the eastern part was badly disorganized by the wreck.

SEASHORE CITY JOYS.

Of the $125,000 in taxes due, less than 25 per cent. has been paid in and but a month and a half remain before delinquency. Collections to date are $38,000, and it is estimated that the delinquency will reach $30,000. Hereafter the city will be able to pay its taxes from year to year, but as far as possible property this year is taxed at the rate of 25 per cent. of its actual value. Property owners are up in arms about it, but see no remedy.

Thirty will in "Jayhawkers' day" at the beach, and former Kansans are expected here. The resignation of City Attorney Daly, presented some weeks ago to the trustees, but held up in an endeavor to secure a reconsideration from Daly, was accepted last night and Carl Monk, a young attorney, elected as his successor. Supervisor Wilson has notified the Good Roads Association that if they will decide to come to Los Angeles and take up the work of improving it within the city, the county will guarantee them a salary of $100 per month. Beginning December 1 the Edison Company will furnish gas at a flat rate of $1.00 per 100 feet. Several sites for parks were considered. To prevent the building of fire traps the Board of City Trustees last night instructed the City Attorney to draw an ordinance defining fire limits in which only buildings of non-inflammable character can be erected.

BRUSH FIRES AT CLAREMONT.

CLAREMONT, Nov. 14.—One of the many brush fires that have been troublesome in this vicinity during the past few weeks started yesterday afternoon about half a mile south of the town in the "wash." At first it was thought to be nothing serious, but as it spread and threatened the destruction of the trees of the cemetery, just beyond the Cawston road, the fire was turned in. The blaze was soon under control, and was left, supposedly out. Later in the evening the flames broke out again, necessitating further work. The last of the fire was finally extinguished at about 2 o'clock in the morning. The area burned covered some two hundred acres.

What Joy They Bring To Every Home

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature and if at any time remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor to many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained by an original method, from certain plants known to them to be most beneficial and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome California blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fig Syrup size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.
